

Chaldean American Chamber of Commerce

Business Person of the Year

Nomination Eligibility Criteria and Evaluation Process

The Chaldean American Chamber of Commerce seeks nominations for the Business Person of the Year.

Purpose

Serving as "good corporate citizens", the Business Person of the Year Award spotlights distinguished business community members and organizations who have provided service to the Chaldean community in areas which have improved the Chaldean community's health and wellness, image and representative voice in the United States and/or abroad.

Eligibility Criteria

Nominator guidelines include:

- Must be a member of Chaldean American Chamber of Commerce and in good standing;
- Must have direct knowledge of the nominated person's or organization's work and must be able to provide proof of knowledge upon request;
- Must provide a full background of historical accomplishments to satisfy evaluation process.

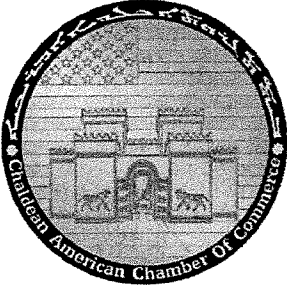

Nominee guidelines include:

- Must provide evidence of significant and differentiated contribution to the Chaldean community causes, issues or representation;
- Nominees do not have to be Chaldean, Chamber members, or Michigan-based;
- Nominees can be individuals, collective teams/organizations, or elected officials.

Qualified Evaluation Process

The Evaluation Committee requires the following minimum requirements for all submissions, otherwise the application for consideration will be disqualified:

- Must be received no later than 5:00 p.m. on January 30th to meet eligibility deadline;
- Must provide a full biographical description of the nominee that includes specific details of their extraordinary contribution to Chaldean causes;
- Must include examples of business accomplishments;
- Must include a narrative statement providing identifiable information that supports the nominee's human, social and philanthropic qualifications for selection, together with any supporting documents, news clippings and/or endorsements.
- Must illustrate differentiation among his/her peers on how they:
 - Show corporate citizenship in partnerships with other peers businesses, governments, and nonprofit civil society towards a human or social cause;
 - Incorporate their social responsibility into their business strategies;
 - Demonstrate activism by example, such as originating/sponsoring grassroots community programming;
 - Define their social value, such as creating broader employment, differentiating contribution to local economies or revitalization of people or communities;
 - Highly-impact professionals and/or entrepreneurs with proven track records, such as enabling job creation for underserved or alleviating social ailments on poverty;
 - Stand apart from others in his/her community contributions, Chaldean-related volunteer boards and committees they actively serve. Provide examples of social or societal humanitarianism in the Chaldean community;
 - Promote positive images and contributions of Chaldean Americans in the social and societal sphere, public/private civic leadership and/or excellence in humanitarian volunteerism.

Businessperson of the Year Nomination Form

CHALDEAN
AMERICAN
CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

NOMINEE INFORMATION

Nominee: _____ Phone: _____
Title/Business: _____ Fax: _____
Address: _____ Email: _____
City, St, Zip: _____ Nominated By: _____

QUESTIONNAIRE

Identify specific business accomplishments over the past year:

In what ways has this person contributed to the Chaldean community? Include a description of this person's character and integrity.

Chaldean American Chamber of Commerce

Humanitarian of the Year

Nomination Eligibility Criteria and Evaluation Process

The Chaldean American Chamber of Commerce is seeking nominations for the Humanitarian of the Year.

Purpose

The Humanitarian Award spotlights community members or organizations that have shown exemplary service to the Chaldean community in areas that improve the Chaldean community's health and wellness, image and representative voice in the United States and/or abroad.

Eligibility Criteria

Nominator guidelines include:

- Must be a member of Chaldean American Chamber of Commerce and in good standing;
- Must have direct knowledge of the nominated person's or organization's work and must be able to provide proof of knowledge upon request;
- Must provide a full background of historical accomplishments to satisfy evaluation process.

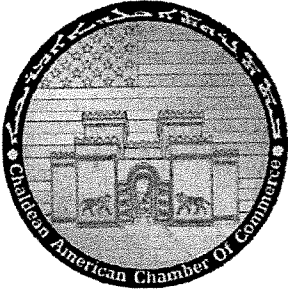

Nominee guidelines include:

- Must provide evidence of significant and differentiated contribution to the Chaldean community causes, issues or representation;
- Nominees do not have to be Chaldean, Chamber members, or Michigan-based;
- Nominees can be individuals, collective teams/organizations, or elected officials.

Qualified Evaluation Process

The Evaluation Committee requires the following minimum requirements for all submissions, otherwise the application for consideration will be disqualified:

- Must be received no later than 5:00 p.m. on January 30th to meet eligibility deadline;
- Must provide a full biographical description of the nominee that includes specific details of either their extraordinary contribution to Chaldean causes or how his/her representative work has provided significant benefits to the Chaldean community;
- Must include a narrative statement providing identifiable information that supports the nominee's human, social and philanthropic qualifications for selection, together with any supporting documents, news clippings and/or endorsements.
- Must illustrate differentiation among his/her peers on how they:
 - Possess an established record of accomplished humanitarian work. Site specific actions and examples of dedication to the cause;
 - Prove extraordinary past accomplishments, not future endeavors;
 - Outline humanitarian and/or community service that establishes his/her differentiated legacy through the scope of community work;
 - Display specific examples of his/her dedication to enhancing and highlighting the role of Chaldeans in his/her industry and/or social and humanitarian enterprise that directly impact the lives of people;
 - Stand apart from others in his/her community contributions, Chaldean-related volunteer boards and committees they actively serve. Provide examples of social or societal humanitarianism in the Chaldean community or representative for the Chaldean communities;
 - Promote positive images and contributions of Chaldean Americans in the social and societal sphere, public/private civic leadership and/or excellence in humanitarian volunteerism.

Humanitarian of the Year Nomination Form

CHALDEAN
AMERICAN
CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

NOMINEE INFORMATION

Nominee: _____ Phone: _____
Title/Business: _____ Fax: _____
Address: _____ Email: _____
City, St, Zip: _____ Nominated By: _____

QUESTIONNAIRE

Identify specific humanitarian accomplishments over the past year:

In what ways has this person contributed to the Chaldean community? Include a description of this person's character and integrity.
